PRINCIPAL OWNER GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III

On January 3rd, George M. Steinbrenner III celebrated his 25th Anniversary as Principal Owner of the most storied franchise in sports history. With 25 seasons of ownership, his stewardship has been longer than any other Yankee owner, surpassing Jacob Ruppert's 24 years. (Colonel Ruppert purchased the Yankees with Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston on 1/11/15, bought out his partner on 5/21/22 and owned the club until his death on 1/13/39.)

In 1973, Mr. Steinbrenner put together a group that purchased the Yankees from CBS. Under his direction, it took just five years for his aggressive leadership to turn the Yankees once again into World Champions. And, in the 25 years he has owned the club (1973-97), the Yankees have posted the highest winning percentage in the Major Leagues at .544 (2,131-1,788).

His success in the sports world is not limited to the Yankees. Mr. Steinbrenner was a multi-sport athlete at Culver Military Academy, where he is in the Athletic Hall of Fame, and at Williams College. He began his coaching career as an assistant football coach at two Big Ten schools, Northwestern and Purdue, and followed that by assembling championship basketball teams in both the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues.

A recipient of four honorary doctorate degrees, Mr. Steinbrenner is involved heavily in various civic and community causes. He is the founder of the Silver Shield Foundation in New York City, which provides college educations for children of policemen, housing and transit police, fire-fighters and state troopers who gave their lives in the line of duty. In February 1997, he was honored as the New York Society of Association Executives' 1997 "Outstanding New Yorker."

Mr. Steinbrenner has served as Chairman of the Olympic Overview Commission, which was created to evaluate the structure and efforts of the United States Olympic program. In February, 1989 he was elected to the position of Vice President, U.S. Olympic Committee, a position he still holds. He has probably devoted as much time and effort to the U.S. Olympic Committee as he has to his many other sporting endeavors. As a representative of the U.S. Olympic Committee, he accompanied the U.S. Olympic team to Albertville, France in 1992; Lillehammer, Norway in 1994; and Atlanta in 1996.

GENERAL MANAGER BRIAN CASHMAN

Brian McGuire Cashman was named General Manager of the New York Yankees on February 3, 1998, after serving five years as Assistant General Manager. Within four days of his appointment, he finalized the blockbuster trade with Minnesota that brought All-Star second baseman Chuck Knoblauch to New York.

At 30-years-old, Cashman becomes the second youngest General Manager in baseball history (Randy Smith was 29 when named General Manager of the San Diego Padres on June 9, 1993).

Cashman joined the Yankees as an intern in the Minor League and Scouting Department in June 1986 and, upon graduation from Catholic University in Washington, D.C. in June 1989, became a full-time Assistant in Baseball Operations. He was named Assistant General Manager, Baseball Administration on November 24, 1992, with responsibilities which included contract negotiations, player waivers, arbitration, budget and scheduling. Cashman also served the club as Assistant Farm Director (1990-92).

Born on July 3, 1967 in Rockville Center, NY, he grew up in Lexington, KY, where his father, John, presides over Castleton Farm, an acclaimed standard-bred breeding ground. He attended Georgetown Prep in Rockville, MD, before attending Catholic University to major in history. He played baseball for the Division III Cardinals and, in 1988, established single-season school records for the most at-bats (149), hits (52) and stolen bases (21). He also finished that season ranked second in runs (37) and on-base percentage (.439)

Brian and his wife, Mary, reside in Darien, CT.

YANKEE ANNIVERSARIES IN 1998

75th - Yankee Stadium opened on April 18, 1923 with a 4-1 win over the Boston Red Sox. Babe Ruth christened his new home with a 3-run homer in the 4th inning. The Yankees also captured the 1st of their 23 World Championships that year when they defeated their crosstown rival and former landlord, the New York Giants, in the World Series.

60th - The Yankees became the 1st team to capture 3 consecutive World Championships (1936 - 1938) when they completed a 4-game sweep of the Chicago Cubs on October 9, 1938. In their 4 World-Series victories from 1936-39, the Yankees lost only 3 times.

30th - Mickey Mantle played the last game of his career on September 28, 1968. He hit his last home run on September 20, 1968 vs. Boston off Jim Lonborg and his 536 career homers ranked 3rd all-time at the time of his retirement.

25th - The Yankees played the final game in the original Yankee Stadium on September 30, 1973. The Yankees lost the finale, 8-5, to the Detroit Tigers and played the next 2 seasons at Shea Stadium while the Stadium underwent a dramatic remodeling.

20th - The Yankees staged the greatest comeback in baseball history, overcoming a 14-game deficit to catch the Boston Red Sox. On October 2, 1978, Bucky Dent's 3-run homer sparked the Yankees to a 5-4 win in a 1-game playoff at Fenway Park. They went on to win their 2nd straight world Championship.

East in '97 as Baltimore went wire to wire...the Yankees moved into sole possession of 2nd place with a 13-5 win at Kansas City on 5/4 and remained there for the rest of the season....their largest defecit of the season was 9.5 games after a 4-1 loss to the O's on 9/6--their 6th straight defeat to open September--but they cut it to 2.0 with 3 games to play....despite winning 17 of their final 22 games, including 9 of their last 10 and last 5 straight, the Yankees finished 2.0 games behind the Orioles....in becoming the 1st team to qualify for post-season play as a "wild card' twice (also '95), the Yankees also became the 1st team to improve its regular-season record after a World Championship since the Oakland Athletics in (1989-90)....the Yankees' 96 wins in '97 was 4 more than in '96, making them only the 7th Yankee team to defend a World Championship with more wins (also 1939, '42, '50, '54, '57 and '62)...on 8/3, the Yankees held a 2.0 lead in the "wild-card" standings but finished with a 12-game margin over Anaheim by winning 34 of their final 55 games. WITH THE LEAD: The Yankees were 81-6 in 1997 when leading after 8 innings and are now 302-13 since the start of the '94 season (also 86-1 in '96, 72-5 in '95 and 60-1 in '94)...were also 73-12 when leading after 6 innings (70-3 in '96) and 77-13 when leading after 7 (79-2 in '96)...IN THE PEN: The bullpen's ERA of 3.22 was the lowest in the A.L. (Baltimore was 2nd, 3.33)...its 2.61 since 7/1 was lower than any bullpen in the Majors by nearly .5 runs. AT HOME: The Yankees were 47-33 at Yankee Stadium (.588) and are 96-64 over the past 2 seasons (.600). ON THE ROAD: The Yankees were 49-33, their best record--and most road wins--since 1986 when they were also 49-33. ONE-RUN GAMES: The Yankees were 23-16 in one-run decisions (17-6 at Yankee stadium, 6-10 on the road)...they were 13-19 in two-run decisions (5-11 at Yankee Stadium, 8-8 on the road). STREAKS: For the 2nd consecutive season, the Yankees had 4 winning streaks of 5 games....entering '96, they had not won as few as 5 straight games in a season since 1971 when they had 3 streaks of 5 wins. BY THE NUMBERS: The Yankees were 71-24 when scoring 1st and 25-42 when the opponent scored 1st...were 82-29 when scoring 4 or more runs and 14-37 when scoring 3 or less...were 64-13 when the opponent scored 3 runs or less and 32-54 when the opponent scored 4 or more...were 67-44 when their starter went at least 6 innings, 44-41 when the opponent's starter went 6...were 74-14 when outhitting their opponent, 13-49 when outhit by the opponent...were 54-32 when making no errors, 42-34 when making at least 1 error...the '97 club scored more runs (5.50 to 5.47) than in '96 and had a lower staff ERA by nearly .8 runs (3.84 to 4.65)...ALL-STAR GAME: Five Yankees were named to the American-League All-Star squad, the most to represent the club since 1987 when 5 Yankees were also named...RHP David Cone was selected for the 4th time, 1st as a Yankee; OF Paul O'Neill was selected for the 4th time, 2nd as a Yankee; 1B Tino Martinez was selected for the 2nd time, 1st as a Yankee; and RHP Mariano Rivera and OF Bernie Williams were named to their 1st All-Star squads. ATTENDANCE: The Yankees drew 2,580,325 in 78 dates (33,081), the 3rd highest home attendance in franchise history (behind 2,633,701 in 1988 and 2,627,417 in 1980)...the '97 attendance was an increase of 329,606 over the World Championship 1996 season (2,250,877) and ranked 5th in the American League. RUNNERS IN SCORING POSITION: The Yankees batted .298 (474-for-1593) with RISP, best in the Majors (Colorado was 2nd, .295)...with less than 2 outs, they batted .338 (289-for-855); with 2 outs, they batted .251 (185-for-738)...the Yankees batted .318 (55-for-173) with the bases loaded with 4 grand slams (Curtis, Hayes, Martinez and O'Neill). PINCH HITTING: Yankee pinch hitters batted .194 (12-for-62) with 1 HR (Hayes) and 8 RBI...the 62 ABs by pinch hitters were the least in the Majors and fewest by a Yankee club since 1973 (52). TEAM DEFENSE: The Yankees committed 104 errors, 6th fewest in the American League, and their .983 percentage tied for 5th. DISABLED LIST: The Yankees placed 10 players on the D.L. 13 times in '97 (including Pat Kelly, Tim Raines and Bernie Williams twice; David Cone, Cecil Fielder, Ruben Rivera, Brian Boehringer, Darryl Strawberry, Dwight Gooden and Luis Sojo)...they used the D.L. 18 times in '96 and had 9 players on at 1 time (5/21-22). IN-SEASON TRADES: On 4/22, acquired the rights to negotiate and sign RHP Hideki Irabu along with the rights to INF Homer Bush, OF Gordon Amerson and a player to be named later (OF Vernon Maxwell) from San Diego for the rights to OF Ruben Rivera, RHP Rafael Medina and $3-million (conditional agreement upon the Yankees ability to sign Irabu by 5/31 and completed on 5/29); on 6/9, acquired OF Chad Curtis from Cleveland for RHP David Weathers; on July 28, acquired OF Angel Ramirez from Toronto for INF/OF Mariano Duncan and cash considerations; on 8/13, acquired DH/1B Mike Stanley and INF Randy Brown from Boston for RHP Tony Armas and a player to be named later (RHP Jim Mecir); on 8/16, acquired INF Rey Sanchez from the Chicago Cubs for RHP Frisco Parotte; POSTPONEMENTS: There were four weather-related postponements in 1997 after nine in '96...there were three rainouts at Yankee Stadium (on 4/12 vs. Oakland; 5/25 vs. Boston; and 7/24 vs. Anaheim) and one on the road (on 6/14 at Florida)...the 7/24 rainout vs. Anaheim at Yankee Stadium was made up at Anaheim as part of a doubleheader on 8/20.

James P. Dawson Award

The James P. Dawson Award was established in honor of the late sportswriter of the New York Times who died during spring training while covering the Yankees. It is presented annually to the outstanding rookie in spring training. Two winners of the award, Tony Kubek in 1957 and Tom Tresh in 1962, went on to win American League Rookie of the Year Awards. The award first was presented to rookie Norm Siebern by manager Casey Stengel in St. Petersburg at the conclusion of spring training in 1956. Media who regularly cover the Yankees vote on the winner.

YANKEE PITCHERS AS BATTERS: With the inception of inter-league play, 4 pitchers--Cone, Gooden, Irabu and Rogers--were a combined 0-for-11 in 1997....from 1973 to 1996, only 5 Yankee pitchers came to bat in regular-season play: Lindy McDaniel was 0-2 in 1973, Sparky Lyle was 0-1 in 1974, Catfish Hunter was 0-1 in 1976, Ron Davis was 0-2 in 1979-80 and Rick Rhoden was 0-1 in 1988....Rhoden, the last Yankee pitcher to hit before '97, started as the designated hitter on 8/11/88 vs Baltimore and batted seventh in the lineup...he grounded out to third base in the third inning off Jeff Ballard, scoring Jay Buhner from third...Rhoden's AB was the first instance since the inception of the DH that a pitcher started and played a game as the DH...other "lasts" by pitchers at the plate:

LAST REGULAR-SEASON HIT: Larry Gowell, 10/4/72 vs. Milwaukee (double off Jim Lonborg)
LAST MULTI-HIT GAME: Steve Kline, 9/27/72 at Detroit (2-for-4, 1R)
LAST EXTRA-BASE HIT: Larry Gowell, 10/4/72 vs. Milwaukee (double off Jim Lonborg)
LAST HOME RUN: Lindy McDaniel, 9/28/72, at Detroit (off Mickey Lolich)

ABOUT ONE-HITTERS

Yankee pitchers have thrown 56 1-hitters, the most recent coming on 9/26/97 at Detroit when four pitchers--Andy Pettitte, Brian Boehringer, Mariano Rivera and Jeff Nelson--combined to limit the Tigers to a 3rd-inning single by Travis Fryman...the last complete-game 1-hitter was tossed by Jimmy Key on 4/27/93 at California in a 5-0 Yankee win.

Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled 3 CG 1-hitters for New York and both men participated in a fourth...Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens each threw 2, with one of Bevens' coming in Game 4 of the 1947 World Series...Bevens was 1 out from a no-hitter when the Dodgers' Cookie Lavagetto doubled in 2 runs to give Brooklyn a 3-2 victory...it was the last game Bevens ever pitched in the Majors.

The Yankees have been held to 1 hit 49 times, the last on 5/27/95 at Oakland by Steve Ontiveros in a 3-0 A's win...Luis Polonia's 2-out single in the 6th inning spoiled the no-hit bid...Ontiveros' 1-hitter was the first vs New York since Greg Harris and Jeff Reardon combined for one on 6/7/90 at Boston and the first complete game 1-hitter since Tom Candiotti did it on 8/3/87...Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton and Nolan Ryan are the only 3 men with a pair of 1-hitters against the Yankees, with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913...Hoyt Wilhelm, who no-hit the Yankees in 1958, tossed a 1-hitter against them in 1959.

Horace Clarke and Don Mattingly are the only Yankees to twice serve as no-hit spoilers...Clarke had the only hit in no-hit bids by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro...in a single month in 1970, Clarke broke up 3 no-hitters in the 9th inning, 2 of which wound up being more than 1-hitters...on 5/2/84 at Chicago, Mattingly ruined a perfect game for LaMarr Hoyt with a wind-blown single in the 7th inning, and on 6/29/85 vs Mil, he also broke up a no-hit bid by Moose Haas, again with a 7th-inning single...on 9/12/81 at Yankee Stadium, Boston LHP Bob Ojeda took a no-hitter into the 9th inning only to have Rick Cerone lead off with a double, followed by a Dave Winfield double.

DID YOU KNOW...

With the 1991 rule change negating no-hitters of less than nine innings, the Yankees have not been victimized by a no-hitter longer than any other team—since September 20, 1958 at Baltimore (Hoyt Wilhelm). Entering 1998, they have gone 29 seasons/6,165 games without being no-hit. (The Chicago Cubs were last no-hit--by Jim Maloney, Cincinnati--on August 19, 1965.)

YANKEE GRAND SLAMS

The Yankees hit 4 grand slams last season after hitting 3 in 1996...hitting grand slams in 1997 for the Yankees were Paul O'Neill (4/5 at Oakland), Charlie Hayes (6/4 at Baltimore), Tino Martinez (7/16 at Chicago) and Chad Curtis (8/10 at Minnesota)...Yankee pitchers in '97 allowed only 1 grand slam--by Cleveland's manny Ramirez on 6/1 at Jacobs Field--after giving up 4 in '96 and a club-record 8 in '95...the Yankees' most-recent cluster of grand slams came in April 1994, when they hit 3 grand slams in a 5-day span from 4/22-4/27 (Paul O'Neill, Matt Nokes, Jim Leyritz)...the Yankees' 10 slams in 1987 tied the Major League record (since broken by Baltimore and Seattle in '96)...Don Mattingly hit a major-league record 6 of the 10 grand slams in '87...the franchise has hit 279 grand slams in 274 games...have posted a 242-31-1 record in those games, including 130-13 in home games and 112-18-1 in road games...the club has had 2 multi-slam games, on 6/29/87 atToronto (Dave Winfield and Don Mattingly) and on 5/24/36 at Phi (Tony Lazzeri, 2)...four pitchers have hit grand slams for the Yankees, including Red Ruffing (1933), Spud Chandler (1940), Don Larsen (1956) and Mel Stottlemyre (1965)...there have been 16 pinch-hit grand slams in Yankee history, the last by Charlie Hayes on 6/4/97 at Baltimore off Jesse Orosco...only 20 times in Major League history have there been last-inning grand slams that have taken the team to sudden victory when trailing by 3 runs...Babe Ruth is the only Yankee to do it, hitting a 1-out grand slam off Chicago's Sarge Connally in the ninth inning of New York's 6-5 win on 9/24/25...Ruth twice hit slams on consecutive days.

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

Beginning with Lou Gehrig's number 4 in 1939, the Yankees have retired 14 uniform numbers to honor 15 players and managers.

3 BABE RUTH

Born: February 6, 1895 in Baltimore, MD. Died: August 16, 1948 in New York, NY. Height: 6-2, Weight: 215. Threw and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1948. Baseball's greatest slugger and the most colorful figure in the game's history. Debuted as a pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, winning 89 games over six seasons before being converted into an outfielder because of his tremendous power. Was sold to the Yankees for $120,000 in 1920 and his 54 home runs that year were more than any other American League team. Enroute to 714 career home runs, won 12 home run titles including 60 in 1927. Added 15 home runs in World Series competition as he led the Yankees to seven Series appearances and four World titles. A member of the inaugural class of Hall of Fame inductees in 1936.

4 LOU GEHRIG

Born: June 19, 1903 in New York, NY. Died: June 2, 1941 in Riverdale, NY. Height: 6-1, Weight 212. Threw and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1939. Durable, powerhitting first baseman who played in an amazing 2,130 consecutive games between 1925 and 1939. Drove in at least 100 runs for 13 straight seasons (1926 -38) and established American-League record with 184 RBI in 1931. Compiled .340 lifetime batting average and belted 493 home runs in career shortened by terminal illness. Was honored at Yankee Stadium on July 4, 1939 and made memorable "Today I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech. Life was immortalized in classic 1942 motion picture The Pride of the Yankees, starring Gary Cooper. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1939.

5 JOE DIMAGGIO

Born: November 25, 1914 in Martinez, CA. Height: 6-2, Weight: 193. Threw and batted righthanded. Number retired in 1952. The "Yankee Clipper" is still considered by many experts as the best all-around baseball player in history. Was a sensational hitter for average and power, a splendid, graceful, ball-hawking centerfielder with a powerfully accurate arm and a daring and alert baserunner. Compiled a .325 lifetime batting average from 1936 to 1951. The two-time batting champion and three-time MVP powered the Yankees to the first of four consecutive World Championships in his 1936 rookie season. Many rate his 56-consecutive-game batting streak in 1941 as the top baseball feat of all time. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1955.

7 MICKEY MANTLE

Born: October 20, 1931 in Spavinaw, OK. Died: August 14, 1995 in Dallas, TX. Height: 6-0, Weight: 201. Threw right and switch hit. Number retired in 1969. "The Mick" was the most feared hitter on the most successful team in history. In his best seasons, and there were many, Mantle was simply a devastating player. He could run like the wind and hit tape measure homers, like his famous 565-footer in Washington in 1953. He led the Yanks to 12 fall classics in 14 years, and 7 World Championships. He still owns records for most homers, RBI, runs, walks, and strikeouts in World Series play. In 1956, Mantle had one of the greatest seasons ever at the plate. He hit 52 homers with 130 RBI and a .353 average to win the Triple Crown. Mantle was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

8 YOGI BERRA

Born: May 12, 1925 in St. Louis, MO. Height 5-8, Weight: 191. Threw righthanded and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1972. A mainstay for the most dominating teams in history, the Yankee that played from the end of World War II until the early 1960s. Although he never led the league in a single major offensive category, he was just the third man to win three Most Valuable Player awards. Selected to play in 15 successive All-Star games. Played on 14 pennant winners and 10 World Champions-more than anyone in history. Led Yankees to the 1964 pennant as manager. Elected to Hall of Fame in 1972.

8 BILL DICKEY

Born: June 6, 1907 in Bastrop, LA. Died: November 12, 1993. Height: 6-1, Weight: 185. Threw righthanded and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1972. Regarded as one of the greatest catchers of all-time. A durable and tireless worker, he caught more than 100 games in 13 consecutive seasons (1929-41), an American League record. He did not allow a single passed ball in 125 games behind the plate, another AL record. Dickey also excelled at the plate, batting over .300 in 10 of his first 11 seasons while hitting 202 homers during his career. He handled Yankee pitching staffs on eight World Series teams, winning seven championships.

9 ROGER MARIS

Born: September 10, 1934 in Hibbing, MN. Died: December 14, 1985 in Houston, TX. Height 6-0, Weight: 197. Batted left and threw righthanded. In one of the most dramatic assaults on a baseball record, Maris caught, then surpassed Babe Ruth's famous home run record of 60. In 1961, Maris hit 61 home runs and still reigns as the single-season home-run king. The two-time American League MVP (1960-'61) is also considered as one of the best fielding right fielders in Yankee history.

10 PHIL RIZZUTO

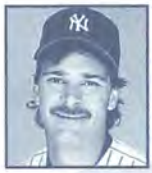
Born: September 25, 1917 in New York, NY. Height: 5-6, Weight 150. Threw and batted righthanded. Number retired in 1985. Playing 13 years for the Yanks, "Scooter" went to the World Series in 10 of those seasons. That stat may best explain why the diminutive shortstop is regarded as a true Yankee legend. He was a durable, outstanding shortstop, skilled bunter and enthusiastic baserunner with a solid .273 lifetime batting average. In 1950 Rizzuto earned the AL MVP Award, batting .324 with 200 hits, 92 bases on balls, and 125 runs scored. He batted .320 in the 1951 World Series and was named Series' MVP. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1994.

15 THURMAN MUNSON

Born: June 7, 1947 in Akron, OH. Died: August 2, 1979 in Canton, OH. Height 5-11, Weight: 190. Batted and threw righthanded. Number retired in 1979. The undisputed leader and most respected man on the Yankee teams that won three AL pennants in a row (1976-78) and two World Championships. Munson was a tremendous defensive catcher, winning the Gold Glove Award in three consecutive seasons (1973-75). In his prime was the best clutch hitter in the American League. From 1975-77 Thurman drove in more than 100 runs and hit better than .300 in each of those three seasons. There is no more tragic date in Yankee history than August 2, 1979. On that date Munson passed away when the plane he was flying crashed while landing.

16 WHITEY FORD

Born: October 21, 1928 in New York, NY. Height: 5-10, Weight: 181. Threw and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1974. "The Chairman of the Board" was the ace pitcher on the great Yankee teams of the 1950's and early 60's. The wily southpaw's lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the best percentage (.690) of any 20th century pitcher and he paced the American League in victories three times, and in ERA and shutouts twice. The 1961 Cy Young Award winner still holds many World Series records, including 10 wins, 33 consecutive scoreless innings and 94 strikeouts. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.



23 DON MATTINGLY

Born: April 20, 1961 in Evansville, IN. Height: 6-0, Weight: 185. Batted and threw lefthanded. Number retired in 1997. "Donnie Baseball" was only the 10th captain to be named by the Yankees in their storied history. The premier first baseman of his era, Mattingly was a nine-time Gold Glove winner. The 1985 American League MVP set records for most grand slams in a season (6), most home runs in seven consecutive games (9) and eight consecutive games (10). A humble man of grace and dignity, Mattingly carried on the legacy of the pinstripe tradition and dedicated his career to the pursuit of excellence.

32 ELSTON HOWARD

Born: February 23, 1929 in St. Louis, MO. Died: December 14, 1980 in New York, NY. Height: 6-2, Weight: 196. Batted and threw righthanded. Number retired in 1984. Became the first black player in Yankee history when he made the club in the spring of 1955. The versatile two-time Gold Glove catcher was an important member of the AL pennant-winning Yankee teams in nine of his first ten seasons with the club. The 1963 American League MVP, Howard was a clubhouse leader who was respected as both a player and a man. Howard's dignified manner off the field and competitive spirit on the field were positive influences on the Yankee team.

37 CASEY STENGEL

Born: July 30, 1889 in Kansas City, MO. Died: September 29, 1975 in Glendale, CA. Number retired in 1970. In a distinguished 54-year professional career, "The Old Professor" emerged as one of the game's greatest managers. His feat of guiding the Yankees to 10 pennants and seven world titles in a 12-year span ranks as the top managerial accomplishment of all time. Simply put, Casey Stengel was one of the best things to ever happen to the game of baseball. He was an authentic Baseball Ambassador, making the game fun for millions of Americans. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1966.

44 REGGIE JACKSON

Born: May 18, 1946 in Wyncote, PA. Height: 5-10, Weight: 181. Threw and batted lefthanded. Number retired in 1993. One of the game's premier power hitters, "Mr. October" blasted 563 career roundtrippers, sixth all-time. In Game 6 of the 1977 World Series, Jackson hit three HRs, all on the first pitch, as the Yankees beat the Dodgers to wrap up the club's first World Championship since 1962. Jackson was an exciting clutch player and an intimidating clean-up hitter with a .490 slugging percentage. The 1973 American League MVP once said, "Some people call October a time of pressure. I call it a time of character." Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1993.

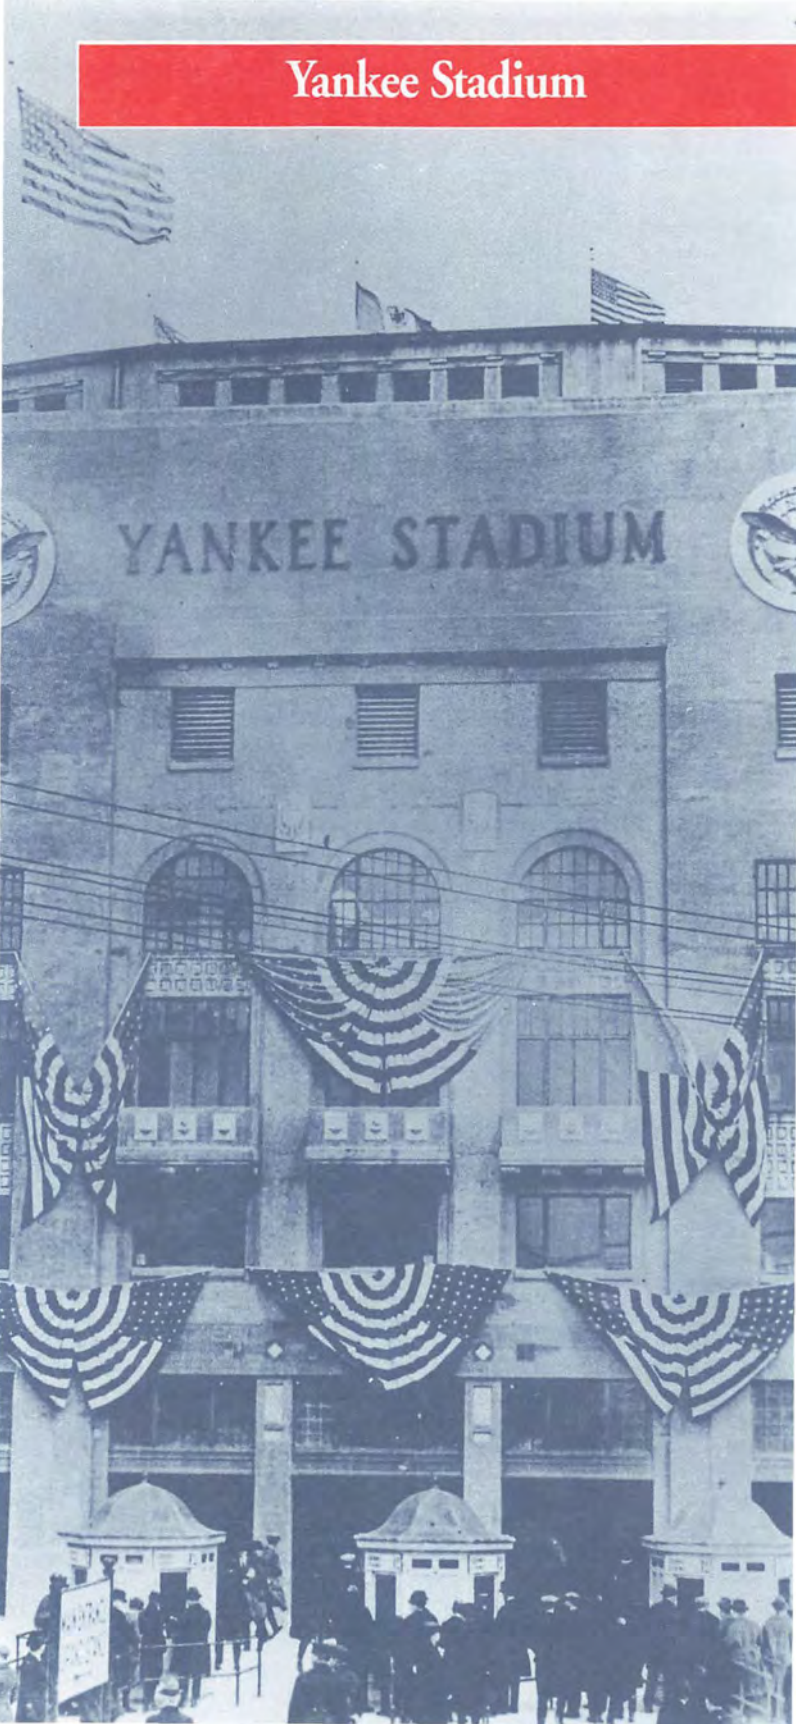
Yankee Stadium



Only a year after they changed Baseball forever with the purchase of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox, the Yankees made another buy that would forever change the way the game was watched.

On February 6, 1921, the Yankees issued a press release to announce the purchase of 10 acres of property in the west Bronx. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor for $675,000, sat directly across the Harlem River from the Yankees' current Manhattan home, the Polo Grounds, which they shared unhappily with the landlord Giants of the National League since 1913.

The relationship between the Giants and their tenant crumbled after the 1920 season when Yankee attendance—boosted by their new slugging sensation—doubled to 1,289,422. That was over 100,000 more than the Giants who, in 1921, notified the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. With their departure from the Polo Grounds now inevitable, Yankee co-owners Jacob Ruppert and Tillinghast l'Hommedieu Huston set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own, Baseball's first triple-decked structure. With an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first to be labeled a "stadium."

Original plans of the architect—the Osborne Engineering Company of Cleveland, Ohio—had the Stadium triple-decked and roofed all the way around. An early press release, in fact, described the Yankees' new home as a field enclosed with towering embattlements, rendering the events inside "impenetrable to all human eyes, save those of aviators." But the initial, grand design was quickly scaled back with the triple-decked grandstand not reaching either foulpole. Contrary to the owners' wishes, the action would be more than visible from the elevated trains that passed by the outfield as well as from the buildings that would spring up across River Avenue. Fortunately, a purely decorative element also survived the project's early downsizing and would become the park's most recognizable feature. A 15-foot deep copper facade would adorn the front of the roof which covered much of the Stadium's third deck. It would give Yankee Stadium an air of dignity that no park has possessed—either before or since.

The new stadium would favor lefthanded power with the right-field foul pole only 295 feet from home plate (though it would shoot out to 429 by right center). Though the left-field pole measured only 281 feet from the plate, righthanded hitters were neutralized by a 395-foot left field and a whopping 460 to left center. It would also be friendly to patrons, boasting an unheard of "eight toilet rooms for men and as many for women scattered throughout the stand and bleachers." (When the Stadium was remodeled 50 years later, it included more than 50 restrooms.) The club's executive offices would be moved from midtown Manhattan and located between the main and mezzanine decks with an electric elevator connecting them to the main entrance.

The construction contract was awarded to New York's White Construction Co. on May 5, 1922 with the edict that the job must be completed "at a definite price" ($2.5-million) and by Opening Day 1923. Incredibly, it was. In only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox.

Officially, 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium for their first glimpse of Baseball's grandest facility while thousands more milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Before the game began, John Phillip Sousa and the Seventh Regiment Band led both clubs to the flagpole in deep center field where the American flag and the Yankees' 1922 pennant were raised. Appropriately, Babe Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees coasted to a 4-1 win.

Because it was widely recognized that Ruth's tremendous drawing power made the new stadium possible, it would immediately become known as "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 32 World Series and the Yankees won their first World Championship over their former landlord, the Giants. Of course, as the Stadium became the stage for a staggering number of World titles—now totaling 23—it also would become known as "The Home of Champions."

In its early years, when wooden bleachers surrounded the outfield, a grass slope approached the outfield walls from foul pole to foul pole. Outfielders, especially Ruth in right, routinely backed up the small hill to pull down fly balls. Atop the bleachers were advertising signs except for a lone, manually operated, wooden scoreboard in right-center field which was "big enough to record 12 innings for games played by every club in the two major leagues." Over the years the board would be replaced by more modern models. The Yankees, in fact, would unveil the first electronic message board in 1959.

By 1928, the Stadium was ready for its first major facelift as the triple-deck grandstand in left field was extended beyond the foul pole to its current termination point. The right-field grandstand was extended in 1937, allowing "upper-deck" home runs in both directions. With the '37 expansion of the grandstand, the remaining wooden bleachers were replaced by a concrete structure and the distance to center field dropped from 490 feet to a still-astronomical 461 feet.

Except for the addition of lights in 1946, the look of Yankee Stadium would now remain relatively the same until the Winter of 1966-67. Then, under the direction of the club's new owner, CBS, the 44-year-old facility received a $1.5-million modernization, most of which was spent on paint (90 tons of it). The brown concrete exterior was painted white as was the by-now greenish copper facade. And all of the grandstand seats went from green to blue, a color scheme that would be retained when the Stadium was completely remodeled after the 1973 season.

Billed as the world's largest scoreboard in 1959, it came down during renovations after the 73' season. It would be replaced by a 560 foot-long board.

On August 8, 1972, after years of debate about the future of the aging ballpark, the Yankees signed a 30-year lease with the City of New York which called for Yankee Stadium to be completely modernized in time for the 1976 season. After completing the Stadium's 50th-Anniversary season in 1973, the Yankees moved to Shea Stadium for two seasons while their home was almost completely demolished and then rebuilt.

The most striking change of the modernization would be the removal of the numerous, obstructive steel columns which supported the second and third decks as well as the roof. By "cantilevering" the upper decks and by lowering the playing field while increasing the slope of the lower stands, sight lines for fans would be dramatically improved. Of course, with the removal of the original roof, the Stadium almost lost its signature feature: the facade. But an innovative design concept included an exact replica of the facade atop the new

560-foot-long scoreboard which stretched across the rear of the bleachers. The board would also include baseball's first "telescreen," which could provide instant replays of the action by employing a then-incredible "nine shades of gray."

Yankee Stadium's exterior changed dramatically, too, as three escalator towers were added, one at each of the Stadium's three entrances. And, with 10 additional rows of seats added to the upper deck, the already-grand Stadium would have any even more majestic look.

Yankee Stadium reopens on April 15, 1976 afeter a two-year renovation project.

The remodeled Yankee Stadium opened on April 15, 1976—with the Yankees topping Minnesota 11-4—and, like its predecessor, would host the World Series in its inaugural season. The Stadium, in fact, hosted the Fall Classic in its first three seasons with the Yankees winning back-to-back World titles in 1977 and 1978.

As one of the world's most-prestigious addresses, Yankee Stadium has also been the home of scores of other sports, entertainment and cultural events. While the Yankees were on the road or out of season, the Stadium opened its gates to college and pro football, soccer, political assemblies, religious conventions, concerts and even the circus.

Boxing immediately found a home at Yankee Stadium with Benny Leonard winning a 15-round decision over Lou Tendler for the lightweight title three months after the gates opened on July 24, 1923. Until Muhammad Ali stopped Ken Norton on September 28, 1976, thirty championship fights have been fought at the Stadium, perhaps none more memorable than the one for the heavyweight title between Joe Louis and Germany's Max Schmeling on June 22, 1938. After suffering a knockout loss in the initial non-title encounter at the Stadium two years earlier, Louis—now the heavyweight champ—avenged his defeat with a stunning first-round KO in the rematch.

Football also became an immediate fixture at Yankee Stadium with the 1923 Army-Navy game inaugurating a rich history of collegiate and later professional football matchups. On November 12, 1928, with Notre Dame and Army locked in a scoreless game at halftime, the legendary Knute Rockne made his famous "win one for the Gipper" pep talk and the Fighting Irish went out and beat the Cadets, 12-6.

The New York football Giants also called Yankee Stadium home from 1956 through 1973 and, on December 28, 1958, played in what is widely recognized as "the greatest game ever played." With the NFL championship at stake, a crowd of 64,185 watched the Baltimore Colts tie the game 17-17 on a Steve Myrha field goal with seven seconds left. Eight minutes into professional football's first-ever "sudden-death" overtime period, the Colts' Alan Ameche crashed through from the one yard line, ending a contest that would help establish pro football as a major sport.

The Stadium was also home to the New York football Giants from 1956-73.

The Stadium was also an important stop for religious assemblies with the conventions of the Jehovah's Witnesses the major outside activity each year. Beginning in 1950, the convention attracted as many as 123,707 people in a single day—far more than any other Stadium event. On October 4, 1965—with the Yankees out of the World Series for only the third time in the last 17 years—the Stadium hosted an event of worldwide significance. During the first visit to North America by a Pope, Paul VI celebrated mass before a crowd in excess of 80,000. Fourteen years later, John Paul II also made Yankee Stadium a stop on his tour of the United States.

WHY THE YANKEES?

When the American League moved the Baltimore Orioles to New York for the 1903 season, the club made its home at 168th Street and Broadway, one of the highest spots in Manhattan. The team would, therefore, be known as the "Highlanders" and their field "Hilltop Park." As early as 1905, however, the name "Yankees" began popping up in newspapers whose editors undoubtedly were searching for a shorter name for their headlines. By the time the franchise moved from decaying Hilltop Park to the Polo Grounds in 1913, it officially changed its name to the by-then commonly-used "New York Yankees."

ORIGIN OF "YANKEE"

The word "Yankee"--a native or inhabitant of the northern United States--is believed to have originated as a nickname--Jack Cheese or Jan Kees--applied by Dutch colonists in New York to English settlers in Connecticut.

THE HISTORY OF THE YANKEE UNIFORM

What would become the most recognizable insignia in sports—the interlocking "NY"—made its first appearance on the uniforms of the New York Highlanders in 1909. The design was actually created in 1877 by Louis B. Tiffany for a medal to be given by the New York City Police Department to Officer John McDowell, the first NYC policeman shot in the line of duty. Perhaps because one of the club's owners, Bill Devery, was a former NYC police chief, the design was adopted by the Highlanders. It first appeared on both the cap and on the jersey's left sleeve, replacing the separated "N" and "Y" which had appeared on the left and right breast each season since 1903 with the exception of 1905. For that season only, the "N" and "Y" were merged side by side into a monogram on the left breast—actually a forerunner of the now legendary emblem.

Jack Chesbro models the franchise's earliest "NY" design.

In 1912, their final season at Hilltop Park, the Yankees—as they were now commonly known—made a fashionable debut at their home opener on April 11. Their traditional white uniforms were now trimmed with black pinstripes, creating a look that would become the most famous uniform design in sports history. The Yankees, however, were not the first team with pinstripes and would actually abandon the look for the next two seasons. By 1915, though, the pinstripes were back for good and, with the exception of the cap, the uniform would remain relatively unchanged.

The Yankees utilized numerous cap designs—including pinstripes—from 1903 until 1922 when they finally settled on a solid navy cap with the interlocking "NY" insignia. Only one more element would now be needed to achieve a look that remains in place today. In 1917, the Yankees removed the "NY" monogram from the jersey and went with a plain, pinstripes-only look. The "NY" remained off the uniform—except for the cap—for the next 20 years until it was reinstated in 1936. The legendary Babe Ruth, therefore, actually played his entire Yankee career without ever wearing the club's now-legendary insignia on his jersey. With the exception of minor alterations—including bolder pinstripes in the forties—the Yankee uniform has remained unchanged for more than 60 years and has, of course, grown into another of the team's great traditions.

Babe Ruth-sans jersey insignia and number-is greeted by Lou Gehrig after belting his 60th homer in 1927.

In 1998, the Yankees will wear a commemorative patch on their left jersey sleeves to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of the Yankee Stadium. It marks the first time the club has worn a patch of its own creation since 1973 for the 50th Anniversary of the Stadium. The Yankees first wore a jersey emblem in 1938 to recognize the upcoming 1939-40 World's Fair in New York (as did the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants). The '38 patch featured the Perisphere and Trylon, the two symbols of the Fair.

YANKEES WERE FIRST TO MAKE UNIFORM NUMBERS PERMANENT

In 1929, the New York Yankees became the first team to make numbers a permanent part of the uniform. Other teams quickly adopted the idea and, by 1932, uniform numbers became standard for all teams. The initial distribution of numbers on the Yankees was made according to the player's position in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore #1, Mark Koenig #2, Babe Ruth #3, Lou Gehrig #4, Bob Meusel #5, Tony Lazzeri #6, Leo Durocher #7, Johnny Grabowski #8, Benny Bengough #9, Bill Dickey #10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared the catching duties).

HOME RUNS BY THE YANKEE PITCHERS

Home Runs by Yankee PitchersFifty-eight Yankee pitchers have combined to hit 154 home runs in the franchise's 95-year history. The top five: Red Ruffing, 30; Tommy Byrne, 10; Spud Chandler, 9; Don Larsen and Mel Stottlemyre, 7...the first home run by a Yankee pitcher was by Clark Griffith on July 14, 1903...entering 1998, the last was hit by Lindy McDaniel on September 28, 1972 off Mickey Lolich at Detroit.

MICKEY MANTLE'S "TAPE MEASURE" HOME RUNS

Mickey Mantle's longest home run was hit in a 7-3 Yankee win on April 17, 1953 off Washington's Chuck Stobbs at Griffith Stadium, travelling 565 feet (Mantle was batting righthanded)...the distance was actually measured by fast-thinking Yankee Publicty Director Arthur "Red" Patterson with a borrowed tape measure and the "tape-measure home run" was born...on August 12, 1964, Mantle hit what is still regarded as the longest home run at Yankee Stadium—502 feet over the 22-foot screen into the center field bleachers—off Chicago's Ray Herbert in a 7-3 Yankee win (Mantle was batting left-handed)...Mantle twice came the closest to being the only player to hit a fair ball out of Yankee Stadium, both times hitting the facade of the upper deck in right field (removed during 1974-75 renovations)...the first occurrence was on May 30, 1956 off Washington's Pedro Ramos in a 4-3 win in the first game of a doubleheader (it struck a point measured at 107 feet above the ground)...the second time was on May 22, 1963 off Bill Fischer of Kansas City, giving the Yankees an 8-7, 11-inning win (it struck a point measured at 106 feet above the ground)...the second was noted as the more prodigious dout as it struck the facade while still on the rise (Mantle said it was the "hardest ball I ever hit").

YANKEE STADIUM MONUMENT PARK

Since 1932 the New York Yankees have honored their greatest greats with the erection of monuments and plaques in the outfield section of Yankee Stadium.

On May 30, 1932 the first monument was dedicated to the memory of Miller Huggins, the diminutive manager who guided the Yankees to six American League pennants and three World Championships, who had suddenly died in 1929.

The first plaque was placed on the center-field wall in April 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.

Two more monuments followed in 1941 for Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for slugger Babe Ruth. Later plaques were placed in center field for general manager Edward Barrow and the Yankees' two great center fielders, Joe Dimaggio and Mickey Mantle. Mantle's plaque was removed and replaced by a fourth monument in his honor in 1996.

Originally, the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and flag pole were located in straightaway center field on the warning track about 10 feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go through or behind the monuments to retrieve the long drives.

As much of a tradition as the monuments and plaques themselves was the policy of allowing fans to exit Yankee Stadium through the center-field gates via the warning track, pausing and reflecting on the achievements of these great men.

When Yankee Stadium was closed for renovations in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to an area off the field between the Yankee and visiting bullpens. However, fans were not allowed to exit via the warning track and viewing of Monument Park was only allowed at a great distance.

In 1976, two more plaques were added memorializing managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel. In the 1980's, plaques were dedicated to Yankee greats Thurman Munson (1980), Roger Maris and Elston Howard (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986), Lefty Gomez and Whitey Ford (1987), Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1988), and Allie Reynolds (1989).

Two other plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope John Paul II in 1979 were dedicated in Monument Park by the Knights of Columbus.

In 1985, after the left-center field fence was moved in, the Yankees again were able to open the Monument Park area for fan viewing. Long lines and increased fan interest caused the Yankees to move the fence in further in 1988 and expand the Monument Park area. The Yankees have included a special walk honoring those Yankees who have their uniform numbers retired.
